BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO BOTTEGA: BEST OF SHOW AT MUNDUSVINI

On the occasion of the 36th edition of the MUNDUS VINI Grand International Wine Award, Il Vino dei Poeti Brunello di Montalcino DOCG Bottega VTG 2019, was awarded the competition's highest accolade: Best of Show.

This is a highly prestigious result that rewards one of the greatest red wines of Bottega S.p.A., which in Montalcino produces not only the prized Brunello, but also Rosso di Montalcino and Sant'Antimo.

MUNDUS VINI, organised by the Meininger publishing group, is the most important German wine competition and ranks among the elite of the most important European awards. The result was announced in Duesseldorf on the occasion of Prowein and the award ceremony was held within the exhibition context.

The award is the result of Bottega's oenological research, which ranges from sparkling wines to great red wines, always aiming for excellence. In this regard, the company's ability to produce quality wines within different denominations should be emphasised: Prosecco, Montalcino, Valpolicella, Chianti.

Il Vino dei Poeti Brunello di Montalcino DOCG Bottega

Brunello di Montalcino Bottega is a wine of great structure with an alcohol content of 14% vol. The intense ruby red colour is enriched by shaded garnet reflections. The nose is characteristic, intense and persistent. It presents hints of berries and violets, musk, spices and aromatic wood, accompanied by notes of vanilla, jam and balsamic aromas in the finish. On the palate is warm, structured, robust, complex and soft, with elegant tannins perfectly balanced with the alcohol content. The aftertaste, pleasant and persistent, extends the pleasure of tasting. Excellent as a meditation wine, it lends itself to important pairings with game (wild boar and pheasant in particular), red meat, rib-eye steak, mushrooms, white truffle and mature cheeses.
